

Ex. 1 Match the words so that they form strong collocations and translate them into Russian.

A	B
unbroken	hot
torrential	the sunshine
a break in	rain
to rain	cold
soak up	rain
thick	sunshine
freezing	the clouds
pouring with	fog
scorching	clouds
to rain	heavily

Ex. 2 Use phrases from Ex 1 to fill in the blanks

1. We have had ... ever since we arrived here.
2. It's been ... all day. (. In fact I've never seen such ...!
3. You can't play outside in the middle of the day because it is too ...
4. When I am on vacation at the seaside, the only thing which I do is lying on the beach ...

Ex. 2 Translate the words from English into Russian

https://quizlet.com/267410138/advanced\_lesson\_051\_weather\_vocabulary\_part\_1docx-flash-cards/?new

Ex. 3. Which of these weather is NOT possible?

- 1 crisp/thick/driving/sinking snow
- 2 patches of fog/snow/mist/haze
- 3 strong wind/sun/rain
- 4 a biting /high/big/light wind
- 5 a hard/ soft/ light frost
- 6 a strong/persistent/light drizzle
- 7 torrential/pouring/flowing/heavy rain

Ex 4 Change the underlined words so that each sentence opposite meaning.

- 1 There was a light wind yesterday.
- 2 The wind picked up in the evening.
- 3 The weather is likely to improve tomorrow.
- 4 It was scorching hot here yesterday.
- 5 There may be some light rain later on today.
- 6 The mist came down at about midday.