

Answer key

Ex 1

1. g 2. a 3. h 4. f 5. c 6. d 7. e 8. b

Ex 2- Checking understanding

1. James received an email proposal from a scammer a few years ago.
2. James decided to bait the scammer by expressing interest.
3. The scammer proposed to ship 25kg of gold.
4. James proposed a much larger amount.
5. The scammer was happy and told James he was going to spend his cut on real estate.
6. James told the scammer he was going to spend his cut on hummus.
7. He proposed to use a code during their correspondence.
8. The scammer agreed and James got him to reply with a coded message.
9. James had so much fun that he decided to carry on replying to scam emails for the next three years.

Ex 3

1. f 2. a 3. c 4. d 5. e 6. b

Ex.4 For the second part, do the first situation as an example. Possible answers:

1. The belief that humans aren't responsible for climate change was knocked on the head last year.
2. Jan ran the numbers and concluded that it was not worth paying in installments.
3. Nana went too far this time.
4. The demonstration got completely out of hand.
5. I told Simon to hold tight while I order the meal.
6. The woman tried to tug at my heartstrings. But I had a feeling that the stories weren't true.