

What your body does

Great bodies of people are never responsible for what they do.

Virginia Woolf

quotefancy

I. Quizlet.

<https://quizlet.com/320676412/flashcards>

II. Match the verbs on the left with a suitable part of the body on the right.

1. blow	a. your knees
2. shake	b. your nose
3. comb	c. your nails
4. fold	d. your head
5. bend	e. your arms
6. nod	f. your hair
7. bite	g. hands

III. Complete each sentence.

smile breathe laugh bite blow shake nod cry yawn
1. People often ____ when they're happy or being polite.
2. People often ____ quickly after running.
3. People ____ when they're happy or when someone says something funny.
4. People may ____ their nails when they're nervous.
5. People ____ their nose when they have a cold
6. People ____ their head when they want to say "no".
7. People ____ their head when they mean "yes".
8. People ____ when they're sad, unhappy or possibly when they're very happy.
9. People ____ when they're tired or bored.

IV. Complete the sentences with a word from the box.

shake blow fold bite breathe bend comb

1. My mother gets very angry with me when I ___ my nails.
2. The President will come into the room and ___ hands with everyone.
3. I sometimes forget to ___ my hair in the morning.
4. In football team photographs, the players usually ___ their arms.
5. Since I hurt my leg in the accident, it's been difficult to ___ my knees.
6. I had to ___ my nose in the middle of the lecture - it was a bit embarrassing.
7. It's lovely to come up to the mountains and ___ fresh air.

V. Put the words in the sentences below.

blink blow your nose breathe chew cough crawl cry frowned laughing lie down nodded smell smile sneezing touch whistle winked yawning

1. Babies can't walk straight away. They usually ___ first.
2. The photographer asked everyone to ___ and look happy before he took the photo.
3. If you can't sing, you can always try to ___ the tune instead.
4. Something in his eye made him ___.
5. You haven't stopped ___ for the past twenty minutes. Cheryl! You must be tired. You'd better go to bed.
6. The TV program was really funny and they couldn't stop ___.
7. You should always ___ your food properly before swallowing it.
8. There was a large sign in the museum telling people not to ___ anything.
9. The film was so sad that, it made him ___.
10. She bent down to ___ the flower.
11. I ___ at her to show that I was only joking.
12. Jane's father ___ as he read her terrible school report.
13. I'm feeling rather tired. I think I'll go and ___ for a while.
14. Stop sniffing, David! Take out your handkerchief and ___ properly!
15. She ___ her head to show that she agreed with me.
16. You wouldn't ___ so much if you gave up smoking!
17. I can't stop ___. I think I must have caught a cold.
18. The doctor asked her to ___ deeply.