

The little things? The little moments? They aren't little.

Jon Kabat-Zinn

quotefancy

Look at the photo below and discuss the following questions:

- What does the woman look like?
- What kind of person do you think she is?
- What has she done in her life?
- How is she feeling right now?
- What's she looking at?

Now looka at the other photo below and talk about it:

- What does the man look like?
- What kind of person do you think he is?
- What has he done in his life?
- How is he feeling now?
- What's he looking at?

The two photos are taken from a short film. Create a story in which the man and woman are characters.

Now you are going to watch the film and compare your story with the story you see in the film.

<https://vimeo.com/17896628>

- How does the man feel when he sees images of his daughter on the TV screen?
- How does the wife feel when she sees her daughter?
- How does the daughter feel when she sees her father?
- How does the father feel when he sees his daughter and wife?
- How does the film make you feel?

Discuss the following question:

- What do you think happens after the film finishes?