

Answers:

Exercise 1. Watch the video and answer the questions.

1. There are only three forensic scientists in the state.

a) true

b) false

2. Which of these things the forensic scientist doesn't say they analyze?

a) slant

b) proportions

c) curvature

3. To train for this job, students are given real crime documents to analyze.

a) true

b) false

4. If a criminal writes with their opposite hand, or with their foot, mouth, etc. ...

a) it's almost impossible to catch them

b) you can also identify and analyze their writing

c) you need a computer to analyze their writing

5. The technique the expert shows us can be used to ...

a) identify text that has been added to an original document

b) identify text that has been erased from an original document

c) identify the person who has written the text

6. He also works identifying signatures during elections.

a) true

b) false

Exercise 3. Watch the video and answer the questions.

1. How many people in the UK are eligible to vote?

a) 46 million

b) 64 million

c) we don't know

2. How many members of Parliament does each constituency have?

a) two

b) the video doesn't say

c) one

3. You have to vote on Election Day to take part.

a) false

b) the video doesn't say

c) true

4. The party with the most votes wins elections.

a) the video doesn't say

b) false

c) true

5. The political party with the most MPs is called ...

a) The Parliament

b) The government

c) The majority